

Our ecosystem in motion

StoneX Group Inc. connects clients to global markets through an integrated financial ecosystem that spans market intelligence, risk management, execution, clearing, settlement, custody, payments, and investment services.

A Fortune 50 company with a century-long track record, StoneX Group Inc. (NASDAQ: SNEX) operates across six continents, combining institutional-grade platforms, local market expertise, and global infrastructure to support clients at every stage of the financial lifecycle.

As our ecosystem continues to expand, clients can move seamlessly across products, asset classes, and geographies through a single, connected platform; reducing friction, increasing efficiency, and strengthening resilience across market cycles.

How the ecosystem works

StoneX deploys capital, expertise, technology, and market insight to deliver end-to-end financial solutions across asset classes and regions. Our vertically integrated model allows clients to move efficiently from insight to execution to settlement within a single relationship, across the following products and services:

- Market intelligence and advisory services
- Risk management and hedging across listed, OTC, structured, and physical markets
- Futures, options, and securities brokerage and clearing
- OTC and structured products
- Physical trading in select commodities
- Equity market-making and electronic execution
- Precious and base metals trading, storage and custody, including precious metals refining
- Prime brokerage, custody, and financing
- Fixed income and securities trading
- Cross-border payments, FX, and treasury services
- Wealth and asset management
- Retail and self-directed access to FX, CFDs, futures, securities, and bullion

What StoneX is built on

StoneX is built on connectivity, discipline, and execution.

As a regulated and publicly traded firm, we operate to the highest standards of governance, transparency, and risk management. Our vertically integrated ecosystem enables us to bridge fragmented markets, streamline client workflows, and deliver end-to-end solutions.

As the ecosystem grows deeper and more interconnected, each new client, product, or market strengthens the platform by reinforcing efficiency, resilience, and long-term value creation for clients and shareholders alike.

- Manufacturers and processors
- Merchants and market intermediaries
- Global traders and distributors
- Corporate consumers and industrial end-users
- Traders in precious metals and other commodities

Institutional clients

StoneX delivers cross-asset solutions built around client objectives rather than individual products. Our ecosystem connects research, execution, financing, clearing, custody, and payments, allowing institutional clients to operate through a single, globally coordinated platform.

- Asset managers and investment funds
- Banks and financial institutions
- Insurance companies
- Sovereign and public entities
- Corporates and commodity firms
- Specialized investment firms

Self-directed and retail clients

StoneX provides individual traders and investors access to global markets through digital platforms spanning FX, CFDs, futures, securities, bullion, and wealth services. These self-directed pathways integrate with the broader StoneX ecosystem, offering flexibility to invest, trade, and grow capital as needs evolve.

- Individual investors
- High-net-worth individuals
- Private wealth and advisory clients

Payments clients

With more than 30 years of experience, StoneX Payments provides cross-border payment services in 180+ countries and 140+ currencies. Our proprietary correspondent banking network supports high-volume, high-complexity flows with speed, transparency, and certainty.
